DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 4, 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chan et al. (US 5,412,689) (hereinafter Chan).

Regarding claim 1, Chan teaches the followings:

“a set of transmission line ... n” (Figure 2, element 22; Col. 5, line 21);

“a set of receivers ... n” (Figure 5, element 72; Col. 8, line 30);

“a set of drivers ... n” (Figure 2, element 30; Col. 5, line 53);

“a mapper ... i” (Figure 2, element 26; Col. 2, lines 9-30; Col. 3, line 56 to Col. 5, line 55; Col. 6, line 3 to Col. 8, line 23).

“wherein ... i” in Col. 8, line 30 to Col. 9, line 17.

Regarding claim 4, Chan further teaches the claimed subject matter “wherein ... i” in Col. 4, lines 49-57.

Regarding claim 17, Chan teaches:

“mapping ... i” (Figure 2, element 26; Col. 2, lines 9-30; Col. 3, line 56 to Col. 5, line 55; Col. 6, line 3 to Col. 8, line 23);

“a set of transmission line ... n” (Figure 2, element 22; Col. 5, line 21,53-55).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2, 3, 9-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chan.

Regarding claim 2, Chan teaches all the claimed subject matter in claim 2, as applied to claim 1 above, except for the claimed subject matter "a table ... the table". Chan utilizes matrix for producing corresponding encoded signal from signal to be transmitted (col. 4, line 5 to col. 5, line 20). Therefore, the claimed subject matter "a table ... stored in the table" would have been design option to one skilled in the art.

Regarding claim 3, similar reasoning applied to claim 2, the claimed subject matter "a finite machine ... a word" would have been optional to one skilled in the art.

Regarding claim 9, Chan teaches all the claimed subject matter in claim 9 (as applied to claim 1 above), except for the claimed subject matter "a first die" and "a second die". However, these claimed subject matter would have been obvious to one skilled in the art since the electronic components disclosed in Chan would have been fabricated using integrated circuit, a method of choice today.

Regarding claims 10-12, see claims 2-4.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed on 08/27/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In the REMARKS, pages 6, applicant has argued "Originally presented claim 5 recited the limitation ... other transmission lines". In Chan, even though all four voltages are utilized, the presentation of the signal itself in each transmission line is independent from each other.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
